Took LSAT: October 2012

Final Score: 162 (85th Percentile)

I am so grateful to have studied for the LSAT with Jonathan Wang and highly recommend him as an instructor. Jon's attention to detail, keen understanding of the LSAT, and comprehensive communication skills provide for an unmatched level of guidance and assistance for those studying for the LSAT. The test can be quite intimidating, but Jon's personal success, coupled with his ability to transfer knowledge effectively, makes for an unrivaled experience.

I highly recommend studying under Jon's expertise. It is so easy to burn out and plateau while preparing for such an important test, but Jonathan's energy, relevant explanations, and unwavering confidence in his students is the perfect antidote.
