

Lacey Elmore

Took LSAT: June 2012

Attending: Emory University School of Law

Jonathan taught me more about the LSAT than I probably ever wanted to know. I went from being completely clueless to feeling like I could answer any question correctly that was put in front of me. With Jonathan's help, studying became less of a chore and more of an entertaining way to pass the time. I would recommend Jonathan to anyone who was even thinking about taking the LSAT. I could not have done as well as I did without his help.
