

Melissa Doura

Took LSAT: December 2013

Attending: Georgetown Law

Accepted to: George Washington (Merit Scholarship), Cardozo (Full Scholarship)

After being very disappointed with my performance on the October LSAT examination, I was about to give up all hope—that is until I stumbled upon Jonathan's email address.

Not only did Jonathan teach me the fundamentals of the LSAT that I had missed, or did not understand in my past studies, but also he provided me with the tools to be confident about my success and my progress. His style of LSAT tutoring was personal, productive and challenging. I learned more from him in our few sessions together than I did over 4 months of sitting in a conventional classroom. He helped me achieve the score that I wanted to continue on my journey towards law school.

I owe all my LSAT success to Jonathan and I recommend him to everyone and anyone looking to persevere on their own LSAT test day. He is a remarkable tutor and it would be very hard to find another one like in any of the five boroughs.
