Took LSAT: October 2012

I am so grateful to have studied for the LSAT with Jonathan Wang and highly recommend him as an instructor. Jon's attention to detail, keen understanding of the LSAT, and comprehensive communication skills are unmatched. The LSAT can be intimidating, but Jon's expertise, coupled with his ability to communicate effectively, makes for an unrivaled experience.

I highly recommend studying with Jon. It's easy to burn out and plateau while preparing for such an important test, but Jon's energy, relevant explanations, and unwavering confidence in his students is the perfect antidote.
